

Dear Friends,

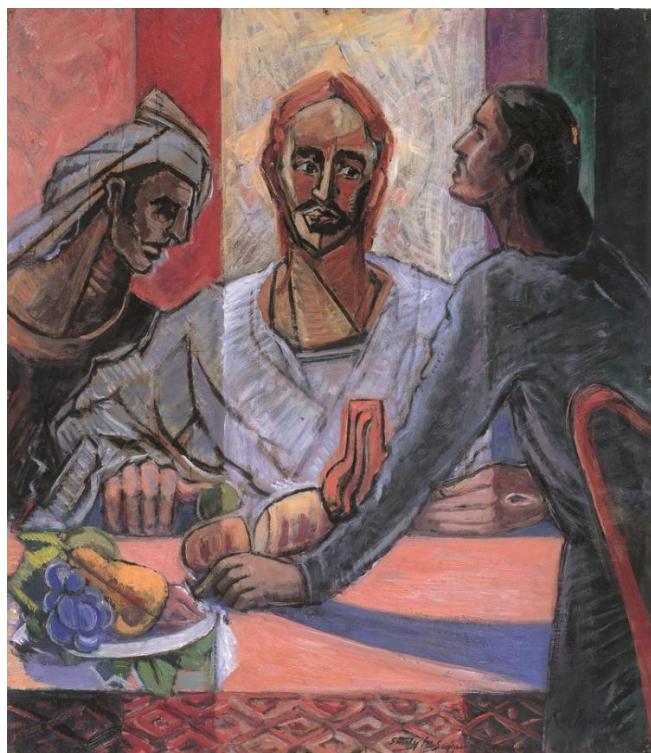

As we move through January, I am becoming aware of how thankful I am - which may sound strange given the constant grey skies and rain. I am thankful for the NHS. My mother passed at the age of 95 at the end of December and the range of care she received was outstanding - allowing her to spend her last days in her flat which was what she wanted. My wife Janet was admitted into the Royal Surrey on December 29th and despite the enormous pressures that the hospital was under - for 10 days received stunning care - and is now at home.

I am thankful for the wonderful people in this Circuit who have cared for me during this period. Thank you.

I am also thankful for the team at St. Mary's in Guildford who have been working so hard to bring 25 works of art from the Methodist Modern Art Collection to Guildford in March/April. The Methodist Church owns one of the most significant collections of modern religious art in Europe and works by well-known figures such as Graham Sutherland, Elizabeth Frink, Maggi Hambling and Patrick Heron will be at the church for a month to view free of charge. There is also a stunning array of musical, poetic and worship events to run alongside the exhibition. Of particular interest is the fact that we have Revd. Dr. Leslie Griffiths coming to talk about the collection on the Sunday afternoon March 22nd. All the events are open to the Circuit and we'd love to see you there.

We have widely trailed the exhibition in The Wey Forward and Circuit Meetings but if this is the first time you're hearing of it do please join us and if you would like to volunteer in any way please do drop an email to MMAC2026@htsmguildford.org.uk

You can investigate the collection online at <https://www.methodist.org.uk/faith/the-methodist-modern-art-collection/>

So whilst I have been surrounded by an anxious time in my own life - as I make my way through January, I am enormously thankful. Giving thanks has proved to be a central part of our own well-being. What might you be genuinely thankful for today - as the blessings of God surround us each day?

Resources/Good News

Exploring the Faces of Homelessness in the South West

The Exeter Coast and County Circuit (as part of the South West Peninsular District) hosted an art exhibition “Let’s Face It” from October to December last year.

This powerful video showcases the exhibition, prompting the powerful statements:

You are worthy as you are; and

What is mine to do?

Notice from District

Vacancy - District Treasurer

We have an exciting opportunity for a volunteer to join the District Team as District Treasurer from April 2026.

Please could you ensure this advert is shared across your churches, and encourage anyone you believe to be a suitable candidate to express interest in the role.
