Message from the Manse

Dear Christian Friends, Happy New Year!

As we welcome 2026, we stand at the threshold of a new journey—one filled with promise, purpose, and God's unfailing presence. A new year is more than a change of date; it is a sacred invitation to renew our commitment, deepen our walk with Christ, and refocus our hearts on what truly matters.

For me, this year begins with a deliberate focus on commitment—looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. By God's grace, I have reached the final stretch of my academic journey, having completed 98% of my studies following my PhD dissertation and defence. I now look forward with joy and readiness to the new appointment ahead, eager to serve, to help others, and to “work, speak, and think” for the Lord. I desire to labour tirelessly and preach boldly, always with love.

Before we step forward together, may I ask:

- What is one area of your life where you sense God calling you to grow or change this year?
- Is it in your faith, your relationships, your service, your priorities, your hope, or the legacy you are building?

Great transformations often begin with one honest question.

This year, I offer six brief perspectives to guide our shared journey:

1. Faith: Begin with God at the Centre.

Let Christ be our starting point. When he is central, everything else finds its place.

2. Church Community: Walk Together, Not Alone.

We are called to strengthen one another. May 2026 be a year of unity, support, and shared joy.

3. Service: Let Compassion Lead.

Service is a posture of the heart. Let kindness, generosity, and compassion mark our steps.

4. Discipline: Focus on What Builds You.

Not everything deserves our attention. Choose what nourishes your soul and strengthens your purpose.

5. Hope: Expect God to Do New Things.

Hope is confident trust in God's unfolding work. Even in unfamiliar places, He goes before us

6. Legacy: Live Today with Tomorrow in Mind.

Our choices shape the faith of those who follow. May our lives reflect Christ in all we do.

As we step into this new year, may these perspectives guide us toward deeper commitment, greater care, and unwavering focus. Let us move forward with courage and expectation, trusting that the God who has brought us this far will carry us faithfully into all that lies ahead.

May God bless your life this year in all you do, wherever you go, and in every word you speak.

Thank you.

Yours devotedly,

Rev. George

EDITORIAL NOTE

January brought the frost,
Heating up, and blow the cost!

February's here at last,
Wind and rain and icy blast.
Yet in spite of winters' cold
Nature's mysteries unfold,
Waiting, hidden, in the earth,
Miracle of life's re-birth.

the Methodist Children's Charity

I became the representative for AFC in the year 2000. I have had huge support over the past 25 years with raising money for AFC from the congregation of Merrow Methodist. Times have changed over the years as one of the biggest fund raisers was the House to House collection in the month of June. Also the collecting at Sainsbury's one Saturday a year. We also had Covid in that period.

The total we have raised through your generosity in 25 years is the magnificent total sum of £63,322. Since 2020 we have donated our Christmas gift cards to the Fostering Wessex Centre at Fareham this is a total of £1,900, for which they are extremely grateful, as they are given to the children and young people throughout the year.

To everyone at Merrow Methodist Church, Guildford

Thank you so much for your generous gifts to Embrace the Middle East totalling £261.00, raised at your carol service. We are deeply grateful to everyone at Merrow Methodist Church, Guildford for your kindness and for choosing to stand with communities across the region who are living through conflict, poverty and displacement.

Your support helps ensure our local Christian partners can continue offering healthcare, education, trauma support and practical help to those who need it most. Your generosity enables our partners to offer dignity, hope and compassionate support where it is needed most.

Our latest magazine features the challenges our partners are facing and the lives that are being transformed through your support. Because of you families affected by war receive urgent medical care, food and practical support. Because of you children and adults can access education, therapy and community programmes that rebuild confidence and give opportunities to those who need it most. Because of you staff working on the front line receive mental health support to help them continue their life changing work. Your generosity sends a clear message to our partners in the Middle East and all those that they serve, they are not forgotten.

As we look ahead to the spring, please know how grateful we are to have you walking with us. Your kindness is transforming lives every day.

Best wishes
McClellan

DIARY DATES

‘Time Out’ Autumn Break

A small group from Merrow Methodist Church has enjoyed taking ‘Time Out’ over several years to share in a Christian short break organised by Flame Trust, a Christian charity based in the Midlands. It would be lovely if we could be a larger group this year.

Plans are developing well for another few days of fellowship, teaching and worship, as well as free time to explore the area from Monday 26th – Friday 30th October 2026. We have confirmation that the Livermead Hotel, Torquay, Devon is delighted to host this event and the Rev. David Coffey, a former President of the Baptist Union, has accepted the invitation to be guest speaker.

Flame plan to issue a brochure in the next two months, which will give full details of how to book, particularly as booking early can achieve some considerable saving when using public transport. Details will include an insight into all that is planned, so please put the dates in your diary.

Derek, Pauline or Gillian will be delighted to tell you more, and they have already put the dates in their diaries.

Volunteers needed

Methodist Modern Art Collection - St Mary's, Guildford

Can you help, please?

To successfully host the exhibition and have it open to visiting groups and the general public, we will need to have a number of volunteers each session; these fall into 2 categories,

Stewarding and Hospitality, although there is some inevitable crossover as we welcome people into St Mary's.

Stewards have 5 key roles

- To welcome
- To inform
- To help provide oversight and security
- To enable the exhibition to be open to visitors
- To listen and watch

The exhibition runs for 4 weeks, but will not be open to the public all the time; our first focus for volunteering sessions is on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

If you would like to volunteer, or find out more about what it entails, please email MMAC2026@htsmguildford.org.uk for further details

Daniel and the lions

When Darius was king of Babylon, his servant Daniel worked hard for him and so he decided to put Daniel in charge of the whole country. This was a great honour, but it made the other servants jealous.

Although they couldn't find anything against Daniel, as he was an honest man who obeyed God they found a way to make the king angry with him, but it was kept a secret from Daniel. They said to king Darius, "O king, live forever. You are great and no one should pray to anyone or anything else but you. If they do they should be thrown into the lion's den." The king was flattered and agreed to pass a law that this should be so.

In spite of the new law Daniel did not stop praying to God three times a day. The other servants found him praying to God for help and straight away went and reported him to the king for breaking the law.

The king couldn't change the law he had passed and though he had always liked Daniel and didn't want him to die he could do nothing else but have Daniel thrown to the lions. However he said to Daniel "I hope the God you serve will rescue you!"

The King had a huge stone rolled in front of the den and sealed it shut, then he went back to his palace. That night he couldn't eat or sleep. As the next day dawned the king ran to the lions' den shouting "Daniel, has your God who you serve been able to rescue you from the lions?" As he waited he heard Daniel reply "O king, live forever! My God sent an angel who shut the lion's mouths. They knew I had done nothing wrong and did not hurt me."

The king immediately had Daniel lifted out of the den. He punished the other servants for their trickery and made a new law "I order that everyone in my kingdom must respect the Lord God, who rescued Daniel from the hungry lions." Daniel had been saved because he trusted in God.

Ken's Pen

In "The sound of music", shown yet again just after Christmas, Maria said "When God closes a door, sometimes He opens a window."

In Maria's case, her life was completely changed. As for me, 3 doors were closed, and two windows opened. I retired from Barclays Bank Trustee Department in 1988. Soon after, I volunteered my services for free with 3 different charities, thinking I would be most welcome. It transpired that, for different reasons, I was not needed.

Not long after, I had a call from Biblelands (now Embrace the Middle East) inviting me to become a Trustee, and, later Hon.Treasurer. Then I was asked by the Circuit Superintendent to become a Circuit Steward. Because those 3 windows were closed, I was able to accept both invitations. Surely God had a hand in both the "doors" and "windows". I believe so.

A little girl heard her Grandma say that the cold weather was bad for her rheumatism. That night, the youngster ended her usual prayers by saying "and, please God, make it hot for Grandma."

A well-educated missionary was preaching in India, with an interpreter. His first words were "The beatific familiarity of this chapter, traditionally appointed for Quinquagesima Sunday, must not cause us to neglect its profundity." The Indian interpreter put it somewhat differently "So far the preacher has not said anything worth remembering. When he does, I will let you know".

With greetings from Puddletown, God bless, Ken Mills

Pete's tweet

Quote: Champagne for my real friends and real pain for my sham ones. Francis Bacon

Joke: Pet-Friendly Hotel

A man decided to go away for the weekend with his dog. However, he noticed that none of the hotels said if they were pet-friendly or not. So, being polite, he decided to write a letter to the small hotel he planned to visit.

"I would very much like to bring my dog with me," he wrote. "He is well-groomed and very well behaved. Would you be willing to permit me to keep him in my room with me at night?"

An immediate reply came from the hotel owner who said, "I've been operating this hotel for many years. In all that time I've never had a dog steal towels, bed clothes, silverware or pictures off the walls. I've never had to evict a dog in the middle of the night for being drunk and disorderly. And I've never had a dog run out on a hotel bill. Yes, indeed, your dog is welcome at my hotel. And if your dog will vouch for you, you're welcome to stay here too."

Travels 'Up North'

My return journey from 'bonnie Scotland' proved to be rather eventful due to what is politely known as the 'white stuff' plus a diversion through the Cumbrian and Yorkshire Moors – due to a junction closure on the M6 (a new bridge was being erected apparently!).

Although, slipping and sliding up and down the hills was a little scary, I may be a little biased to say that the scenery was out of this world.

Glencoe

Rannoch Moor

Unfortunately, I was unable to get any photos of the Cumbrian and Yorkshire Moors as by the time we got there, it was rather dark!

If anyone has been watching the 'Highland Cops' series on BBC2, this frequently features the area where my mother resides. The last episode of the recent series specifically featured Ardnamurchan (and the Corran Ferry) and the village of Strontian which is 12 miles from my mother's village. Strontian's 'claim to fame' is that the mineral Strontium was found near by and was named after the village.

Christmas Bells (1863 ) by H W Longfellow

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the South,
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

It was as if an earthquake rent
The hearth stones of a continent,
And made forlorn
The households born
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men."

The Weaver Poem by Grant Colfax Tullar (1869 -1950)

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me.
I cannot choose the colours
He weaveth steadily.

Oft' times He weaveth sorrow;
And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the underside.

Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Will God unroll the canvas
And reveal the reason why

The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

He knows, He loves, He cares;
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives the very best to those
Who leave the choice to Him

The above poem was frequently used by Corrie Ten Boom.
But, co-incidentally, Julie read it for the first time on the same day that it appeared in her husband John's bible reading notes for that day.

Prayers worth sharing

Creator God, as we step forward into this New Year, when thoughts turn again to beginnings, starting afresh, new leaves and turning skeletons free from cupboards,
Be with us.

As we gaze into the distance of fresh mission grounds of hopes and dreams, opportunities for service, challenges and uncertainties,
Take our fears and turn them into strengths.
Take our lack of faith and empower us through the Spirit who breathes life into this world;
whose presence is reflected in the icy chill of winter's breath as well as the comforting warmth of a summer breeze.
Walk with us through this New Year of opportunity

Amen

Lord: In the midst of Winter, when the days are cold and wind can pierce, remind us of the warmth of your love.
In the midst of Winter, when days are short,
dawn comes late, and dusk arrives early,
remind us that in the darkness your light still shines.
